

World premiere of the solar cargo vehicle EVIG on October 20

Invitation to the physical reveal of the final design of Clean Motion's latest vehicle, EVIG has gone out. The event will take place in Gothenburg, Sweden, on October 20th at 16:00. On the premiere, the product configurator and the vehicle orders will open.

The company presented the start of project Re:volt on September 13, 2021. Now just over a year later, on October 20, 2022, the physical unveiling of the final design of the vehicle named EVIG will be held.

Göran Folkesson, CEO at Clean Motion; "The potential is enormous. There are approximately 32 million light transport vehicles in Europe alone. Just over half of these are used in cities, which is our target market. With EVIG, we are changing the image of what a small electric vehicle can do - and starting a green revolution in urban deliveries."

The premiere on October 20 at: 4:00 p.m CET

- Presentations about the project and partners from both the customers and the supplier side.
- Unveiling and premiere of EVIG
- The possibility of interviews and meetings with the company management
